MONDAY MORNING, MAY 25, 1863.

By Telegraph.

We have dispatches of 19th and 20th May from San Francisco. The people's ticket for city officers, with one exception, was elected. The Golden Age, from Panama, arrived last Wednesday, having exprienced severe damage, as detailed in the dispatch.

From the States, there is very scanty news, on account of interruption to telegraphic communication. The Army of the Potomac is reported to be in excellent condition, and impatient for a fight. The capture of Jackson, of which we had advices some days since, is not confirmed, of course, but the fight took place at Raymond, Mississippi, where, "so far as heard from," our side was all right. The English intelligence is highly encouraging.

The Spring Campaign.

It cannot be denied, deeply mortifying as the confession is, that the Government has met with severe and unexpected reverses in all the important movements which it has undertaken since the beginning of the year. Vicksburg, Port Hudson, Charleston and Fredericksburg are yet in possession of the rebels, though operations of great magnitude and cost have been directed against them. The causes of failure are not material: we have the results and cannot avoid their consequences. The heavy blows have been struck in vain, and though the rebellion may be weaker, its strength and its vitality yet remain, to be destroyed only when its armies are defeated and dispersed. Because we feel sure of the integrity of our cause, and of the immensity of the national power when properly exerted, we have all along and to this day been underrating the ability and the resources of the enemy, and as a consequence of this, public officers, the press and the people have anticipated a speedy termination of hostilities as soon as with the opening Spring, our forces should make attack upon the various points defended by the rebels. The attack has been made and made in vain, and though not disheartened or discouraged as to the final result, it cannot be denied that the people are disappointed. They cannot understand why it so, but they are disposed to insist on more determined and vigorous action and more thorough preparation. It must be understood and acknowledged that the conquest of the South is a work of vastness and difficulty, which can be completed only when its armies are killed or captured. While these live, the rebellion continues,—when they are annihilated, it dies and never till then. All measures, therefore, ought to tend directly to this purpose and to this only. The wide scattering of the national armies, "the nibbling around the outer edges" of the rebel territory, as some one terms it, the neglect to cut lines of communication, and the hope of starvation through scarcity, have only caused mischief. The Government can succeed by concentrating its power, by bringing in every case a superior force against the foe,—thus making victory sure whenever a battle is fought—and by seeking, not so much to acquire control over towns or territory, as to ruin hostile armies; but we do not believe that the course pursued during the last year, and especially the last Spring, will sensibly shorten the war or crush the rebellion. It may test the endurance of the South but that will be all, and we fear that after the experiment has been continued for months, and even years, at a tremendous and terrible cost of life and treasure, it will be wholly in vain and fruitless. There will still be left the only alternative of overcoming and destroying the rebel army or submitting to it.

GREAT FIRE AT ALBANY.—The telegraph from Salem reported yesterday that a terrible conflagration broke out at Albany on Saturday evening, by which the largest part of the business portion of the town was burned to ashes. The fire was still raging when the mail stage passed, early yesterday morning. It originated in the Albany Hotel building.

HOW AN OPINION IS FORMED.—"I was amused," writes the London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian, "at the judgment on the Prince of Wales pronounced by that eminent authority on the value of a man, the huntsman of the Pytchley Hunt, after the Prince's first appearance in Northamptonshire a few days since: "He rides hard, and he rides straight; he'll make a good king."

That is very much like the Down East fisherman, who knew Daniel Webster was fit to be a President, "because," he said, "I seen him ketch a codfish, and he done it well."

UP COUNTRY PRODUCE.—The crops in Walla Walla valley are very promising, and a yield of 100,000 bushels of wheat the coming harvest is certain.

Recent advices of a private nature from Garibaldi represent him as chafing furiously because he could not go to the aid of Poland. He seriously demanded of his physician whether, by the amputation of his foot he could not travel. One correspondent tells us that he hardly slept at night, asking at all hours "Will they hold out? Will they hold out, think you, till I can get to Poland?" It is said that the Italian police, however, keep their eyes sharply on him.

DUTY OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.—Chief Justice Caton of Illinois has addressed a long letter to Governor Seymour of New York, on the relations of the different sections and parties to the war, and the duty of the democratic party at this juncture. The following extract will show the position taken by the judge:—

These provocations, in connection with the known state of feeling pervading the whole community South, render any hope that they will embrace the democratic offer to return and resume the status quo ante bellum, entirely futile at the present moment. They will, with bitter contempt, spurn this offer now, let it come from whom it may. Such is the present state of feeling in the Southwest as well as in the Southeast. Victories must be won before they will listen to reason from any party, and accept relation on any terms.—Were the democrats in power to-day, they must win victories before they could save the Union. If these victories are won while the abolitionists rule, may not the South accept peace from us when we attain the control, quite as readily as if won under democratic auspices?

What shall be done in this contingency?—The answer of ninety-nine in the hundred, of those who who voted the democratic ticket at the October and November elections is and will be: The war must be prosecuted earnestly and to the last—not to crush and conquer the South, but to crush and conquer the rebellion. If a ten years' war is necessary, rather than give up the Union, they accept it—sorrowfully, it is true, but earnestly. We hope and believe that whatever the fortunes of war may be this winter, and especially if success shall attend our arms, and if Mr. Lincoln can be brought under democratic influences, or even if the South can be brought to believe that conservative principles have acquired such an ascendancy in the North as to admit a peace on the old basis and protect them in their fair constitutional rights, then peace is possible after the 4th of March, when the new Congress will come into being. To render this possible—to excite a reasonable hope that the South will return to the Union on the old basis—it is indispensable that they should be disabused of the opinion that the democratic party is a peace party on the basis of separation. Whatever this or that democrat may think or feel about the prosecution of the war, certain it is that a vast majority of the old democratic party—that is to say, the Douglas portion of it, and all of those who have formerly voted with the republicans, but at the late elections voted with us, at least in the West, and no doubt the same is true in the East, are fixed in the determination that the war must be prosecuted till the rebellion is put down, or till those in revolt will submit to the government of the constitution. Indeed this follows as a necessary consequence upon the determination not to submit to a dismemberment of the Union—which, as before stated, must be looked upon as a settled question at least in the West.

A SPIRITED PHOTOGRAPH.—"One who has lived in Georgia and South Carolina," writes to the London Daily News to say that these States will probably refuse to pull together in the long run, for the reason that Georgia possesses an industrial community who are by nature honest, notwithstanding their drift into secession, while South Carolina "was settled by poor nobility, decayed aristocracy, discontented Canadians, out-at-elbows gentlemen, polite swindlers, and the riff-raff of broken down noblesse, gamblers and demi-reps of Paris and London. That was the original stock. Much of it has since, by their beautiful domestic system, been improved, strengthened and made more vigorous by an infusion of blood from the more athletic and industrious race known in history as the descendants of Ham."

The writer, after laying on these strong colors, fills canvas thus:

"South Carolina may be called a lazy, genteel, ambitious, piratical fillibuster; while Georgia is a modest, homespun, unrefined, plodding, honest tiller of the soil. Query: will Georgia submit to bear a part of the burdens of taxation in a debt of six hundred to a thousand millions, brought on by a war that was entirely due to South Carolina originally, and afterwards backed up, aided and abetted primarily by Virginia and Mississippi? Let the slippery speculators who are so anxious to buy Confederate bonds, and then sell out to a parcel of simpletons and 'lame ducks' in twenty-four hours, give an answer."

THE ANACONDA.—The Richmond Dispatch pretends to be very jolly over the anaconda, which is threatening to envelop rebeldom in its folds. It thinks:

It is probable enough that in the multiplicity of attacks about to be made upon us, some of them may prove successful. But, unless all succeed, our cause is still as hopeful as ever. The invasion has been compared to the operations of an anaconda in the act of stifling his victims. It is a good simile. Would the anaconda in any part of his body and you break his hold. Defeat any part of his expedition and you destroy the whole.

Suppose the Yankees should burn Charleston and Vicksburg? Of what avail would it be to them if Hooker should be beaten here in Virginia as McClellan was last spring?—Of what avail would it be to the Yankees to hold Charleston and Vicksburg, while he had an immense force within a day's march of Washington, with the whole Northern frontier laid open to our enterprises?

Let our people, then, be of good cheer.—The "anaconda" must succeed everywhere if it expects to accomplish anything worth fighting for. Partial success will not do. And even if they should succeed everywhere; if they should take Richmond, Charleston, Savannah, Mobile, Chattanooga, still we are not beaten so long as men survive to bear the banner of the red cross in the field. We cannot afford to be beaten. The consequences will be too terrible even to think of. There are a thousand motives to render the war immortal.

What though the field be lost—all is not lost;
The study of revenge, immortal hate,
And courage never to submit or yield—
All these remain.

THE REBEL LOAN.—The New York Herald has this to say concerning the proposed cotton loan in England:

We are quite content that the Government of Jeff. Davis shall swindle stupid, plethoric Britishers out of as much money as they are willing to contribute to the laudable but rather impracticable design of severing the American Republic. We regard it as one of the biggest things that the rebels have yet done, not even excepting John B. Floyd's operations. And as to the motive which inspires the ruling and moneyed classes of England, we can think the matter over quietly for the present, and when we get over our present little difficulties we can see what is the best way of treating this last manifestation of British neutrality.

An intelligent physician writes that there is a no more certain method of propagating scarlet fever and perpetuating consumption in a family, than the practice now adopted by many, of keeping a house closed for several weeks or months after a death has occurred in it.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to May 18th.

NEW YORK, May 18.—The special Washington dispatches of the morning papers are barren of much else than speculation. The Tribune's dispatches say that movements are on foot and strongly supported in and out of the Cabinet for the appointment of Gen. Butler to the command of the Department of the West.

The Times' dispatch relates to Senators Wade and Chandler, who had just arrived from Falmouth. They report the troops in a most efficient condition. The soldiers are in the best of spirits, and impatient for an advance of Lee's army. Capt. Slager, our Chief Ordnance officer, reports that we lost 8 guns captured on the 9th.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 16.—Two small boats, the Emily and Arrow, engaged in carrying the mails, &c., through the Dismal Swamp canal to North Carolina were captured yesterday near Currituck bridge, 40 miles from Norfolk.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 15th has the following: Jackson, Miss., May 12.—The enemy advanced yesterday with a heavy column of 12 regiments upon Raymond, Miss., where Gen. Gregg had 4,100 infantry, a few cavalry and no artillery. Skirmishing began at nine o'clock in the morning. The enemy was continually reinforced until one P. M. when he opened battle heavily with musketry. Gregg fought two hours with musketry, when learning that the enemy were heavily reinforced and that the reinforcements were ready to engage, he retreated through Raymond. He will make a stand at Mississippi Springs, where he has been reinforced with infantry and artillery.

The Charleston Mercury says that the guns of the Keokuk are now on south Commercial street. They will soon be mounted for our defense. They are valuable acquisitions, no less than handsome trophies of the battle of Charleston harbor.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 19.—The Petersburg Express of the 15th says the retaliatory resolutions by the Confederate Congress provides that every commissioned officer in command of negroes used against the Confederate States shall be put to death, and the negroes delivered to the State authorities, to be dealt with according to the present or any future laws. The same paper speaks despondingly of affairs at Vicksburg.

NEW YORK, May 18.—The steamer City of New York, with dates from Liverpool to the 6th, and Queenstown to 7th, has arrived. A deputation of Unionists and traders headed by Mr. Bright, presented an address adopted at a late meeting sympathizing with the North, to Minister Adams. Adams made a speech expressing his great pleasure at its reception, and admitted the difficulties of steering clear of collisions between the two nations, but he trusted that friendly relations would be established. He asserted that notwithstanding the tone of some American speakers and journals, there is no nation for which the Americans entertain greater regard than England; and that if the real sentiments of each could be clearly established towards each other, there would be no fear of a collision. He believed that the traders and the Unionists had taken the right course for an understanding.

The London Times looks upon Adams' speech as most reasonable.

The Times looks forward without mistrust for a mutual forbearance. England must expect some interruption to trade and annoyance, and must tolerate the short comings in consideration of the difficulties of neutrals.

California News.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—The Overland Telegraph still continues out of order and we have no later eastern news.

A heavy storm of wind and hail prevailed throughout the State last night, which, it is feared, will injure to some extent the maturing of crops.

The election for city officers took place today. So far as we can learn it passed off quietly. Appearances indicate the success of the entire People's ticket by a large majority.

The steamer Golden Age, from Panama, arrived at 8 o'clock. She shipped a heavy sea while crossing the Bar which caused a great deal of damage. Rumors are current that several children were washed overboard but we can learn no particulars. Two seas boarded the steamer abaft the wheel, carrying away all the water closets on board, and about 20 feet of her rail, and from 20 to 40 feet of her bulwark. Her port after guard deck is badly sprung and second cabin ventilators are all stove in; several are completely filled with water and badly damaged.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—The city election on the general ticket has resulted in the election of twelve of the People's nominees and one of the Citizen's. The average majority for the People's ticket is 1,800. The Citizen's party elect Supervisors in the 2d, 6th, 10th, and 12th Districts which makes the Board a tie.

W. G. Ross and Charles Duane, for assault in Squatter's Riot, were fined $100.

The railroad loan of $1,000,000 carried by 1,168 majority.

DENTAL CARDS.—Certificates received by Dr. W. KOEHLER from his former places of residence:

KOEHLER, to whom I gave my case for another trial. He made me a full set of teeth, which I am now wearing with all the comfort and satisfaction desired, and I would recommend him to all in need of the services of a skillful Dentist. W. McFADDEN, M. HORSE SCHOOL.—A good audience was present at the Theatre on Saturday evening, to witness Prof. Belew's performances, and to hear his lesson to the vicious horse, which became as docile as a lamb, under the Professor's kind training. Not half so many attended as we expected to see; and we are sure that if the purpose of the exhibition, in aiding the Ladies' Sanitary Association, and the thorough skill and experience of Prof. Belew had been more generally understood, the house would have been as crowded as it ought to have been.

PERSONAL.—Among the list of passengers reported as leaving New York on the 21st of April, we notice the names of A. M. Starr and wife.

FROM HONOLULU.—The Bark Cambridge N. C. Brooks, Master, was advertised in the Honolulu, S. I, papers, to sail from that port on the 11th of April last, for this city. She is more than due, and we have heard it stated that she is now in the Columbia river; if so, she may be expected to arrive within the next 24 hours.

Two drunken Indians, named Jack and Joe, were brought before the Recorder on Saturday, for disorderly conduct, and sent to jail for 24 hours.

UNSAFE BRIDGES.—Those bridges, on the old and new roads, just this side of the penitentiary, are in a wretched condition, and wholly unsafe to travelers. We believe they belong to the city, and if so, the Street Commissioner should give his attention to having them repaired, before some accident occurs. To the bridge on the new road we particularly call attention.

ACCIDENT.—Two horses attached to wagon backed over the bank in front of Weatherford's drug-store, on Saturday, and were only prevented from going into the river by a boat which was lying there. No damage sustained except a slight bruising of the horses.

THE FANCY GLASS BLOWERS.—To-night, at the Turn Verein Hall, the National Troupe of Glass Blowers will open their first exhibition in this city, continuing until Wednesday night and perhaps during the entire week.—We presume we have already said enough relative to the merits of this exhibition to induce all our citizens, and the ladies especially, to go and see the beautiful, pleasing and wonderful works of this company. We doubt not that a large number our country people, and the citizens of Vancouver, and other localities in the vicinity of this city, will be in during the week to see the great curiosities exhibited, as a similar opportunity may never again be presented. It has not been an unfrequent occurrence that people have come forty and fifty miles, and sometimes further, to see this show during their tour through this State and California, and at no time or place has the audience been less than hundreds, frequently five and six hundred, and sometimes as high as a thousand persons have visited the show during one evening's entertainment. We shall expect to see at least five hundred there to-night, and perhaps every night during their stay in this city. Every body goes,—old and young, rich and poor, gay and serious, religious and irreligious, proud and humble, high-toned and low-toned, elegant and seedy,—all, every, "and the rest of mankind," go, and go often, to see this great and profitable exhibition, and never get tired of going.

GONE TO SCRATCHING.—We notice that our neighbor of the Times has caught the itch—item, without giving the proper credit, and he has been scratching it over twice. "Does it feel good, William?"

The Brother Jonathan is due to-day. She will bring no later dates than already received by telegraph.

☞ Read City Collector's notice to tax and license payers.

A Paris paper says much interest has been excited in Paris by the dispatch of two official representatives of the Marines to Marseilles by the Emperor's especial desire, in order to report upon the success of the unimmergible tunic which has been tried amid the heaviest seas raging during the reign of the mistral.—Five sailors had been chosen from the various ships of war lying in the harbor. Only one of the number could swim. All five, however, were soon beheld far out at sea, walking over waves as serenely as if they had been crossing a hayfield in summer time, and were merely compelled to step high in order to avoid treading on the hay. The tonic is made in the ordinary shape of a paletot, and is easily put on and taken off. One of the sailors was coolly smoking a cigar during the whole time of the experiment, while another was eating and drinking from a little tray which he carried before him. The last and most conclusive, because most French, experiment was the game of dominoes, played by two of the parties, who, in spite of the tumbling and tossing of the ugliest sea ever beheld, maintained with the greatest gravity the excitement of the game to the very last.

GRAND LODGE, I. O. O. F.—The Grand Lodge of Oregon commenced its eighth annual communication at Corvallis, on Wednesday last, the 10th inst. Representatives were present from all the subordinate Lodges in the State, with one exception. The reports of the officers for the year past represent the Order to be generally in a prosperous condition. The officers for the ensuing year are as follows: J. H. Douthit, of Albany, G. M.; Henry Denlinger, of Jacksonville, D. G. M.; J. W. Williams, of Corvallis, G. W.; Chester N. Terry, of Salem, G. S.; George M. Stroud, of Salem, G. T. The Grand Lodge adjourned Thursday afternoon, to meet at Eugene City in May next.—Albany Democrat.

DR. D. JAYNES'

EXPECTORANT

AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG, and found such general favor in every region of country where they have been sold (and there is no place on the civilized globe where they have not been sold,) that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press. Yet it is due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who, in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from inducing and ending in CONSUMPTION, many of whom may not have used this remedy, that they should be allowed to read of some of the cases where its influence has been useful in remedying complaints from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates immediately upon the Disease,

SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT, while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the Bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors.

UPPER UWCHLAND, Chester Co. Pa., Sept 15, 1858.
Dr. D. JAYNE—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS, and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail, I obtained no relief for my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for about three months, I was entirely cured.
NATHAN PENNYPACKER.

ASTORIA, Long Island, Jan 13, 1860.
A. W. TINELLI, Esq. New York—Sir: As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS, accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest, and great difficulty in breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical science, when at your friendly suggestion, I began the well known (but not enough known) EXPECTORANT of Dr. Jayne, of Philadelphia. Three or four days after having commenced to take it, my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free.
I am now quite another man, and my general health has never been better.
I remain, my dear Tinelli, with esteem, your servant and friend,
J. B. MONTE.

WINFIELD, Tuscarawas Co, O., May 31, 1860.
DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER, after having been beyond the hopes of recovery. During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well.
J. H. COFFMAN.

BURLINGTON, Bradford Co. Pa., July 21, 1863.
DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles and some PILLS, was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day. JOHN HENRY.

We would add to the above that we sold to Mr Henry the medicine 5 his son, and know that the statement is true.
HENRY, WILHELM & CO.

IN A PERFECT MANNER,

A greater range of work than any other machine.

The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood, iron, brass or steel used in its construction, but by the manner in which these materials are put together, and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out. You can buy a watch or a piano-forte for very little money; but if you want either for your own use, you want an article which can be relied upon, and you will purchase accordingly.

LADD & WEBSTER'S

use a straight needle; curved ones are liable to break.

They make a tight lock-stitch, alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be ravelled.

Every machine is sent from our office threaded, and with work under the needle ready for operation, accompanied with such explicit printed instructions as will enable persons who may never have seen a machine to teach themselves.

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhoea or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother have caked Breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

A Terrific Combat

FIGHT BETWEEN A LION AND A GORILLA

Again and again my name was called loudly, distinctly, and earnestly

'John, John' It was the voice of my wife whom I had left safely at home in London

'John, John! Wake up will you! You've got the nightmare and have fallen out of bed' John, John, do get up, dear You've dragged all the bed clothes down on the floor with you. You've rolled yourself up in them, so tightly that I can't get you out You'll be smothered if you don't wake up Oh dear! oh dear me Wake up, you great stupid, do!'

"Bless my soul" said I "How fortunate—how curious it is too, that you should come to my rescue so opportunely It was very kind of you, and so courageous besides' When did you arrive out?—Do you know that I was wondering, just as I was tumbling into this horrid pit, why the gorilla's wife did not come to his assistance? You know she might have done it easily and safely enough, for the lion wouldn't have let go his hold, and if she had sprung on his back, she might have enabled her husband to freshen his grip. They might have quickly strangled him between them Is it not so—"

"My goodness gracious me" said my wife, interrupting me What stuff and nonsense are you talking? Lions and gorillas!—fiddlesticks! There are gorillas and lions enough in the street' Drunken women screaming, and nasty men fighting, and the police trying to take them off to the station The noise they made woke me, and there I found you snorting and grunting and struggling on your back, and the moment I touched you, away you floundered out of the bed, rolling yourself up in the clothes, and dragging them all away with you! Oh, don't sit on the floor there, like a great donkey, with your night cap on one side, looking so silly and ridiculous. Do get up and help me set the clothes straight on the bed again"

"What!" said I "Was it all a dream, and is not even my noble Fan a reality?"

"Your fan, indeed!" retorted Mrs Smith, who was beginning to lose her placidity of temper "If you are so warm as to want a fan, you may sit up there and use mine I'll lend it to you and welcome But please let me have the bed clothes, for I don't want fanning My teeth are chattering with the cold The police have taken all the fighting and shouting and screaming gorillas and lions, male and female, to the station house The fans are in the wardrobe Do, there's a dear, get up off the floor.

WHAT TERMS THE REBELS WILL GRANT THE NORTH WEST—A late number of the Richmond Enquirer cooly lays down the following conditions upon which the Southern Confederacy would receive the North West into its rebellious arms—

As the Enquirer has been accused of repelling friendly advances and discouraging or preventing the course of that excellent rupture at the North, we shall try to make amends this very moment by saying the most soothing things that any Confederate properly can to help the good work. We think, then, that when the war is once over, and when the Northwestern States shall have separated themselves from the Federal Union and established a league for themselves and taken the initiative in recognizing the independence of the Confederacy, then it is highly probable that the Confederates would enter into an alliance with that Northwestern league, notwithstanding all its sins done, and would engage themselves to furnish a proportion of Confederate troops for the defence of that country, in case of the furious Yankee nation waging war to crush a second "rebellion"

Further, we think the provisions of that act of our Congress proclaiming the free navigation of the Mississippi, should be more fully made known among our Northwestern enemies, in order that they may see that the said free navigation is carefully limited to the citizens of any of the States on its borders, or on the borders of its navigable rivers," and so exclude the Yankees proper. Further still, we believe it would be well to express to these Northwestern enemies of ours the general feeling that, so soon as they shall have ceased to be "our enemies in war" and shall have become "in peace friends," we should discriminate in all things between them and the Yankees proper, placing the latter in the category of the least favored nation, but dealing with the former on the easiest terms, because that would be for our interest, and this Confederacy will always be willing, for its own interest, to make treaties with any foreign power, whether in America or Europe

And, to prevent mistakes, here is what is meant by "free navigation of the Mississippi," as defined in the aforesaid act of Congress—Permission to pass freely to the sea, without any duty or other hindrance except light money, pilotage and other like charges, permission to pass freely to any port on the Mississippi within Confederate limits, and to enter and load goods and freight, paying the duties thereof to the Confederate Government, and there to sell them, and to forward them under bond or seal, as customary in such cases, with usual regulations as to warehousing and drawback In short, on entering within the limits of the Confederacy upon the river, a steamboat of the Northwest would be precisely in the position of a French steamer entering Prussia on the Rhine—no better, and no worse.

As for the Yankee nation proper no boats of theirs should ever enter the Mississippi at all

PROMOTION DECLINED—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune tells the following story of a singular dilemma in the case of a veteran officer who has been promoted:—

The Navy Department has just discovered itself in a serious dilemma owing to the sturdiness of Old Ironsides—Commodore Charles Stewart. Some time since Congress made him a Flag Officer on a salary of $4500 a year A recent session "promoted" him to the rank of Rear Admiral, on an income of $2500 a year As the first law was never repealed the old hero fails to appreciate the advantage of paying $2000 for an empty title Secretary Welles sent him a commission, which was most courteously returned A second was declined with grace—and I learn to day that a third has been exquisitely refused A captain in the navy, on Thursday last, asked the Flag Officer how the matter would end "I never surrendered anything given me by the government," replied the Captain of the Constitution, "and I am not going to contract a bad habit now"

POPPING THE QUESTION—One evenin as I was a sittin by Hetty and had worked myself up to the stickin' pint sez I, "Hetty, if a feller shud ask you to marry him, what wud you say?" Then she laughed and sez she, "that wud depend on who asked me" Then sez I, "supposin it was Ned Willis?" Sez she "I'd tell Ned Willis, but not you" That kinder staggered me But I was too cute to lose the opportunity, and so sez I again, "Suppose it was me?" And then you ought to have seen her pout up her lip and sez she, "I don't take no supposes" Well, now, you see there was nothin' for me to do but touch off the gun So bang it went. Sez I "Lor, Hetty, it's me Won't you say yes?" And then there was such a hullaballoo in my head, I don't know 'zactly what tuk place but I heard a yes whisperin' somewhere out of the skirmish

SOJOURNER TRUTH ON BLOOMERS—"Sojourner, what do you think of Women's Right's?"

"Well, honey, I's been to der meetins an harked a good deal Dey wanted me fur to speak So I got up Says I, 'Sisters, I a'nt clear what you'd be after Ef women want any rights more'n dey's got why don't dey jes take em an not be talkin about it" Some on em came round me, an asked why I didn't wear Bloomers An I told 'em I had Bloomers enough when I was in bondage 'You see,' she said, 'dey used to weave what dey called nigger cloth an' each one of us got jes sech a strip, an' had to wear it widthwise Them that was short got along pretty well, but as for me' She gave an indescribable droll glance at her limbs and then at us and added, 'I tell you, I had enough of Bloomers in them days"—Mrs Stowe in the Atlantic

Mr Jenkins remarked to his wife that in her he possessed four fuls "Name them, my love" "You are beauti*ful*, duti*ful*, youth*ful*, and an arm*ful*" "You have the advantage of me, my dear" "How so, any precious?" "I have but one fool" Mr Jenkins made no further inquiries

In a town in Connecticut one of the Overseers of the Poor called on a clergyman for his services at a funeral "You need not trouble yourself much," he said, "I only want a short, common sort of a prayer" It was only a "pauper"

A man being asked, as he lay sunning himself on the grass, what was the hight of his ambition, replied "to marry a rich widow with a bad cough"

It seems there was one Senator conscientious enough to refuse the mileage plunder—Foote, of Vermont—Boston Post

LEGAL

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all net profits (less $600) derived from any source whatever A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes hired help Rents Drayage &c, necessary to carry on his business but no farmer merchant mechanic or any person has a right to deduct his own labor or so much expense from his income

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st 1862, so that on the evening of December 31st, 1862, everybody should make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year All gains from any sources of income, such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks Insurance Stock Savings Banks interest, &c, (they having already paid the income tax) are not again taxed It therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income that there may be no dispute with the Assessor

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends.

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of the business for the year and pay the tax on the amount over $600

A man may, outside of his business, spend all and even more than his profits [illegible] nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600 And so with a salary all over $600 must be taxed though personal or family expenses consume it all

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May 1863 and [illegible] the 30th June 1863 And any sums [illegible] thirty days after the 30th June as aforesaid and for ten days after demand by the Collector five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing only aggravate disease and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN
PHYSICIANS and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If you do use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev J Newton Brown D D Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr C M Jackson of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them

J NEWTON BROWN

PHILADELPHIA June 23 1861

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters put up in quart bottles compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold hundreds to die the death of the drunkard By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind the desire for Liquor is created and kept up and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market and will cost much less You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that HOOFLAND'S German Bitters will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers on the arrival of the sick it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters"

PHILADELPHIA August 23, 1862.

Messrs Jones & Evans—Well gentlemen your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life There is no mistake in this It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years a member of Sherman's celebrated battery and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs and was for seventy two days in the hospital This was followed by great debility heightened by an attack of dysentery I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine from which I landed on the 28th of June Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down it was immediately thrown up again

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach Life could not last under these circumstances and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully though unsuccessfully to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital Mr Frederick Steinbron of Sixth below Arch Street advised me as a forlorn hope to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded and I am now thank God for it getting better Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian from the vicinity of Front Royal To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life

Very truly yours ISAAC MALONE

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement as we had despaired of seeing our comrade Mr Malone restored to health
